DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of the election requirement in the reply filed on 3/14/07 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the search for all the species is not burdensome. This is not found persuasive because the species differ from one another by substantial amounts so as to require a difficult search.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Claims 2-4 and 10-18 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 3/14/07.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1 and 5-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 57-132051 in view of JP 4-15122.

JP 57-132051 shows a variable compression ratio engine comprising and axially shiftable cylinder block. However, the manner in which the engine is mounted to a vehicle is not set forth. JP 4-15122 shows in figure 3 mounts 40, one for the crankcase 36 and the other for the transmission 39. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to mount the engine of JP'051 in the manner taught by JP'122 since none other is taught, even in a FWD vehicle. In regard to claims 5 and 6, the language is so functionally descriptive as to be met by any mount arrangement. In claim 9, "lies within a predetermined range" is so broad as to be met by JP'122.
